

Edible Gardens

Community Benefits

Support sustainability

Enhance local ecosystems

Build stronger connections within our communities

Promote food security (Yard Sharing/Community Gardens/ Urban Argriculture

Access to fruit, vegetables, and flowers

Aesthetic Benefits

Colour

Change with the seasons

Structural

Texture

Design Principles

USE CONTRASTING FOLIAGE SIZES (SMALL VS LARGE SIZE (ZUCHINI)

STRONG LINES AND VERTICAL ELEMENTS (POLE BEANS)

STRUCTURE

OPPOSING COLOURS (RED AND GREEN)

Forms

Indoor Displays

Containers

Small Yards

Large-scale annual/perennial displays

Community Gardens

Indoor Display

Containers

Large-scale Annual Displays

Herbs

Groundcovers or borders

Hardy, forgiving, attract pollinator interest

Add Fragrance

Basil Tarragon Rosemary Parsley Thyme Mint

Greens

- ►Lettuce, Kale, Beet greens, Swiss chard, Cabbages, Sorrel
- Extend the season into cooler weather (spring and fall)

Fruits and Vegetables

- ► Strawberries, Tomatoes, Artichoke, Fennel, Peppers, Eggplants, Carrots
- Fruit trees (apples, sour cherries, plums)

Edible Flowers

- ► Violas and pansies
- ▶Lavender
- ▶Calendula
- ► Marigold
- ►Hibiscus
- ► Nasturtiums

Questions or Comments